What is the Arkansas Trails System?

A statewide trail system list that is administered by the Arkansas Trails Council. This administration includes:

- 1) coordinating trail development between state, federal, county, municipal, and private entities;
- 2) development of a wide variety of trail types to provide maximum trail opportunities for the citizens of Arkansas;
- 3) encourage development of trails in or near population centers;
- 4) provide technical assistance for trail development and maintenance;
- 5) provide information about Arkansas trails.

What is the Arkansas Trails Council?

It is an advisory body of volunteers open to all state and federal agencies, local governments, public and private utility companies, private land owners, and trail users with an interest in or potential for trail development. Its goal is to inform the above agencies and persons of public need, use, ongoing and planned trail development and to provide a public forum for discussion of trail related issues.

How do you become a member of the Arkansas Trails Council?

Representatives or individuals shall become voting members of the council upon attending their second consecutive council meeting. All persons requesting information about the council and its meetings can be placed on a mailing and email list.

Where are the Arkansas Trails Council meetings held?

The meetings are held at a location in the central section of the state to facilitate access by as many interested participants as possible. The council bylaws allow for meetings to be held at special locations when acceptable to members. The meeting place and date are announced in the council newsletter and posted on the council website.
